

if you've never said hello, got no hair left on your bow never stepped on bubble gum, ta-dee-ta-deedle-deedle-dum if you've never cut a rug, if you never ate a bug if you've never licked a slug, if you've never lost your mug never had a broken heart, never ate a sugar tart never waited for the answer, skipped a stone, ate in the dark if you never stop to ask for directions when you're lost if you never never never no not ever ever ever if you've never owned a blanket made by Pauline O'Gorman or a ferret, or a hamster, or a gerbil or a carrot if you've never stopped to sleep or if you've slept right through the pipes, peed in a pool or on the e-lectric fence by the moonlight if you've never touched your Grandma's cheek or had a snowball fight sung three-part harmony, stayed up all night if you've never stood your ground or gone dancing in the rain offered help, watched the sun come up or kneeled to the pain if you've never read all night, if you've never climbed a tree helped the sick, lost a friend, been shy or hungry or lonely seen a whale breech, dried a tear, tapped your feet or faced your fear been massaged in a line, stayed up early, drank good beer si elles vous font pleurer, les voix de Dentdelion if you never never ever ever want to go home if you've never said i love you, or given a gift then YOU DON'T KNOW how much you've missed
