LES POULES à COLIN

WINNERS of the Young Tradition competition in Burlington, Vermont and a Prix de la Culture

Desjardins, the 5 members of this young group from the heartland of traditional music in Québec are inspired by roots music passed down from their families. Their performances are entrancing and sparkle with unpretentious, natural talent and respect for their repertoire – beautifully arranged original and folk-trad songs and tunes (both French and English).

They grew up and learned their craft alongside some of Québec's finest trad musicians in a region famous for traditional Québécois music. They have performed at venues across Canada and the U.S. IN 2011, they released their first recoding "Hébertisme Nocturne", to much critical acclaim.

TWO FAMILIES, TWO GENERATIONS, FIVE MUSICIANS SERVING UP A SPICY MIX OF QUÉBÉCOIS ORIGINAL AND TRADITIONAL SONGS AND TUNES.

With twin fiddles, flute, guitar accompaniment, vocal harmonies, and capella arrangements, they create a rich sound that is both intimate, energized and inescapably Québécois. Since 1994, Dentdelion has brought their music to audiences across Canada and in the U.S. and Europe.

Veteran fiddler-singer Claude Méthé received a medal of honour from the government of Québec for his early work in traditional music with Le Rêve du Diable. Dana Whittle, Denise Levac, Bea Méthé (Claude and Dana's daughter), and Colin Savoie-Levac (Denise's son) join Claude in making fresh, rich, and vibrant music.
